

The Books Of God

by

Ron Cash

Frontliner's Voyage,

The New Jews,

Three Ages,

The Books Of God

Contents

Introduction	5
Enoch	7
The Son Of Man	17
For My Name's Sake	24
The Lord's Name	31
The Eternal Law	34
Paul and The Law	36
Converted	41
The Feasts	45
Joshua Heschel	50
A Note on How Not To Worship	63
The Colossians	64
The Galatians	66
A Mistaken History	74
Fake Religion	78
The Christian Church	79
Answers From The Past	86
Cowboy Input	87
The Atonement Day	88
The Lake Of Fire	90
The New Jerusalem	93
Joseph	95
The Riddle Of The Sphinx	96
Heaven	97
UFOs	99
The Seed	100
Understanding	102
Summary	103
Deuteronomy	103
References	106
Eusebius	107
Appendix; book of Enoch	131

Forward

The Truth is simple, obvious and it hasn't changed from the beginning of the world. The test is to recognize it from the deceptions, lies, false ideas, fake images and fake history.

After forty years of studying the Bible and reading ancient writings I noticed two things. First, the Bible must be true because of proofs within the text and the natural world around me. Secondly, there is a lot missing.

It doesn't seem fair God would have a set of rules for two out of three ages of the world. It doesn't seem likely a God who created right and wrong would be double dating with Christians and Jews. If the Lord's people were Jews in the past and they will be Jews in the future, What happened to the present?

I read hundreds of books and spoke with thousands of people. Now I can see how we got here.

After graduating from A&M University in Texas, I completed 19 years of public service to include teaching, social work and government work. All the while, over forty years, I was studying and researched ancient documents. I took a few years off work and sailed the Gulf of Mexico, Cuba and the Bahamas. Then I traveled the U.S. for several years and ten other countries, including Israel. I was finally allowed to write this book. No doubt a real writer would have done a better job.

Introduction

Here is the shortest summary of history I know complete with evidence and analysis. The only thing required to understand is interest.

Written by Enoch in his time is the story from the First Age of the world. Later, Moses recounts the same facts. It turns out Gods, demi-gods and mortal men ruled in the First Age, ending with the clash of the titans.

Then, the first beauty and the beast show up in the Second Age, ushering in many different world religions. Recorded by Manetho, the keeper of records and his contemporary Berosus about 300 B.C.. Both had access to the library of Alexandria. These are the best records we have outside the Bible.

Most importantly, it becomes obvious how and why most of the world doesn't understand the Bible, we were all born in a trap. Then, we see how a Jewish Bible came to be incorporated into so many different religions.

Finally, several mysteries are solved when we learn to understand all three books of the ages.

The entire history of the earth may be described as Three books, Three ages and Three righteous men. It takes all three books to get the big picture.

Ecc_12:13 Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

Solomon

Enoch

Ancient Egyptian records reveal a very violent time in the First Age of the world. Cross referenced with the Bible and the book of Enoch it all becomes more clear.

In his Antiquities and Chronology of the Most Ancient World, John Jackson relates the understanding of the most ancient scholars by referencing their works to include;

Manetho, Africanas, Sincellus, Panadorus, Strabo, Herodotus, Philostratus, Pliny, Dio Cassius, Quintus Curtius, Siculus, Plutarch, Cenforinus, Licinius Macer, Fenestella, Solinus, Servius, and others.

Jackson discovers the book of Enoch was accepted by most of the ancient world, including the Egyptians, Jews, Arabians, Syrians and Chaldeans.

Antiquities and Chronology.

125

their Accounts of them. The Arabian, Syrian, Chaldean, Jewish, and Egyptian Writers related, that the first Hermes, called by them Adrisor Idris, lived before the Flood and was Enoch; and that the second was the Scribe and great Counsellor of Osiris, whom Sanchonia-

It's only lately that scholars have decided to call it false writing.

Moses wrote,

Gen_5:24 And Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him.

The book of Enoch was a common text in those days and considered scripture. Eight copies were found in cave four at Qumran and one in cave eleven. When scripture scrolls were beginning to fall apart the Jews would not destroy them but buried them or hid them, often in a cave.

The oldest copy of Enoch is believed to be from about 300 B.C. Manetho would have had access to it in the library of Alexandria.

Jude, half brother to Our Lord wrote,

Jud_1:14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, Jude's quote comes from a section where Enoch is describing end times.

...And behold He cometh with ten thousands of His holy ones To execute judgement upon all, And to destroy all the ungodly: And to convict all flesh Of all the works of their ungodliness which they have ungodly committed, And of all the hard things which ungodly sinners have spoken against Him.

Paul wrote,

Heb_11:5 By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

Enoch was taken to God's house, which he describes as a place cold as ice and hot as fire, made of crystals and filled with angels, fire and a throne before a rainbow. From under the throne he said there was a river of fire flowing out.

Enoch's description of events of his time sound like the Clash of The Titans near the end. He was called a "scribe of righteousness" by the Angels and he had a very interesting view of what was happening.

Manetho says everyone agrees it was about the year 1000 when 'the gods' came down. Enoch calls them 'the children of heaven'. Moses called them the 'sons of God'. Hebrew history calls them the 'Nephilim', meaning the fallen ones.

By whatever name, they messed up the whole world in pursuit of personal pleasure. They taught forbidden things to people like, how to fight and build weapons and how to make drugs and paint their faces. Not all those things passed away with the flood, but they should have.

Enoch writes,

And all the others together with them took unto themselves wives, and each chose for himself one, and they began to go in unto them and to defile themselves with them, and they taught them charms and enchantments, and the cutting of roots, and made them acquainted with plants. And they became pregnant, and they bare great giants, whose height was three thousand ells: Who consumed all the acquisitions of men. And when men could no longer sustain them, the giants turned against them and devoured mankind. And they began to sin against birds, and beasts, and reptiles, and fish, and to devour one another's flesh, and drink the blood. Then the earth laid accusation against the lawless ones.

After their judgment came down from The Lord, the Angels were talking;

Michael said thus to Raphael: 'I will not take their part under the eye of the Lord; for the Lord of Spirits has been angry with them because they do as if they were the Lord.

This is how the world got so twisted in the First Age and it explains why it's so wrong today. The book of Enoch is the appendix for further reading.

The ancient writers mostly agree the First Age lasted 2242 years. They said these dynasties were ruled by Gods, Demigods, Heroes and Mortal men before the flood. The heroes were mortal men possessed with the spirits of the dead. It seems even in the First Age of the world politics were declining.

They do not all agree. Jackson argues;

History written in Egypt, so the Hermaical Pillars mentioned by Manetho, from whose Inscriptions the History of the first supposed Egyptian Gods and Demi-gods was taken by Agathodæmon, could be no older than the Time of this Hermes, the first King of the Hero Dynasty, called from him the Cynic Circle: and this could not be earlier than 553 Years after the Flood, and 2616 Years before the vulgar Christian Æra, where the old Egyptian Chronicle supposes this Dynasty to begin, as I shewed above. The ancient Writers not knowing there were two of the Name of Hermes, one far older than the other, and so not distinguishing between them, are perplexed and confused in

So, the dynasty of nine kings possessed by spirits may have been after the flood. That would explain a lot about how evil got back into the world after the flood.

At a point, The Lord decided it was time to stop the trouble.

Then said the Most High, the Holy and Great One spake, and sent Uriel to the son of Lamech, and said to him: 'Go to Noah and tell him in my name "Hide thyself!" and reveal to him the end that is approaching: that the whole earth will be destroyed, and a deluge is about to come upon the whole earth, and will destroy all that is on it. And now instruct him that he may escape and his seed may be preserved for all the generations of the world.' And again the Lord said to Raphael: 'Bind Azazel hand and foot, and cast him into the darkness: and make an opening in the desert, which is in Dudael, and cast him therein. And place upon him rough and jagged rocks, and cover him with darkness, and let him abide there for ever, and cover his face that he may not see light. And on the day of the great judgement he shall be cast into the fire. And heal the earth which the angels have corrupted, and proclaim the healing of the earth, that they may heal the plague, and that all the children of men may not perish through all the secret things that the Watchers have disclosed and have taught their sons.

Here is the reason behind the Azazel goat in the annual forgiveness event called, The Atonement.

the whole earth has been corrupted through the works that were taught by Azazel: to him ascribe all sin.'

And to Gabriel said the Lord: 'Proceed against the bastards and the reprobates, and against the children of fornication: and destroy the children of fornication and the children of the Watchers from amongst men and cause them to go forth:

This started the clash of the titans.

send them one against the other that they may destroy each other in battle: for length of days shall they not have.

And no request that they (i.e. their fathers) make of thee shall be granted unto their fathers on their behalf; for they hope to live an eternal life, and that each one of them will live five hundred years.'

The only people now living on earth who live five hundred years may be flying around in little ships and still called the Watchers. Answers from the Ancient Days, Internet archive.

And the Lord said unto Michael: 'Go, bind Semjaza and his associates who have united themselves with women so as to have defiled themselves with them in all their uncleanness. And when their sons have slain one another, and they have seen the destruction of their beloved ones, bind them fast for seventy generations in the valleys of the earth, till the day of their judgement and of their consummation, till the judgement that is for ever and ever is consummated. In those days they shall be led off to the abyss of fire: and to the torment and the prison in which they shall be confined for ever. And whosoever shall be condemned and destroyed will from thenceforth be bound together with them to the end of all generations. And destroy all the spirits of the reprobate and the children of the Watchers, because they have wronged mankind. Destroy all wrong from the face of the earth and let every evil work come to an end: and let the plant of righteousness and truth appear: and it shall prove a blessing; the works of righteousness and truth' shall be planted in truth and joy for evermore.

The Bible records,

Gen 6:12 And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

Gen 6:13 And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

Gen 6:14 Make thee an ark of gopher wood; rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch...

Gen 7:11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

Gen 7:24 And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days.

Gen 8:13 And it came to pass in the six hundredth and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was dry.

Gen 9:28 And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years. Gen 9:29 And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years: and he died.

Gen 10:6 And the sons of Ham; Cush, and Mizraim, and Phut, and Canaan.

And Cush begat Nimrod: he began to be a mighty one in the earth. Gen 10:9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD: wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD. Gen 10:10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar. Gen 10:8

At this point one would think all will be fine in the future. Trouble is, those evil spirits from the First Age are still around. They were let off till the end and allowed to make trouble in our world.

Enoch records The Lord proclaiming judgment on the rebel gods.

And therefore I have not appointed wives for you; for as for the spiritual ones of the heaven, in heaven is their dwelling. And now, the giants, who are produced from the spirits and flesh, shall be called evil spirits upon the earth, and on the earth shall be their dwelling. Evil spirits have proceeded from their bodies; because they are born from men and from the holy Watchers is their beginning and primal origin; they shall be evil spirits on earth, and evil spirits shall they be called. As for the spirits of heaven, in heaven shall be their dwelling, but as for the spirits of the earth which were born upon the earth, on the earth shall be their dwelling. And the spirits of the giants afflict, oppress, destroy, attack, do battle, and work destruction on the earth and cause trouble: they take no food, but nevertheless hunger and thirst, and cause offences. And these spirits shall rise up against the children of men and against the women, because they have proceeded from them.

From the days of the slaughter and destruction and death of the giants, from the souls of whose flesh the spirits, having gone forth, shall destroy without incurring judgement -thus shall they destroy until the day of the consummation, the great judgement in which the age shall be consummated, over the Watchers and the godless, yea, shall be wholly consummated."

Evil spirits continue to show up in history and play a big part by influencing the direction of mankind.

Not long after starting over on the dry land things started to go wrong again. About 500 years into the new earth, according to Jackson, Hermes, son of Mizraim, started celebrating people and animals and apparently, his cousins, Nimrod and Semiramis, turned it into worship with their famous parties in Babylon. Since that time, nearly five thousand years ago, there have been different religions.

The original beauty and the beast, Nimrod and Semiramis of Babylon, were the foundation of all idolatry that followed in the known world. He was very tall, quite dark and not at all good looking. She was stunningly beautiful and renowned as the filthiest woman there. He was renowned for his strength and ability to kill leopards with his hands. Towering above everyone wearing leopard skins, Nimrod became king of Babylon.

He built walls around the city to protect it from wild animals and enemies. Ovid, said it was actually Semiramis who built the towers and walls of Babylon. From The Two Babylons, Ovid himself tells us that it was Semiramis, the first queen of that city, who was believed to have "surrounded Babylon with a wall of brick." Semiramis, then, the first deified queen of that city and tower whose top was intended to reach to heaven, must have been the prototype of the goddess who "first made towers in cities." When we look at the Ephesian Diana, we find evidence to *the very same effect. In general, Diana was depicted as a virgin, and the patroness of virginity; but the Ephesian Diana was quite different. She was represented with all the attributes of the Mother of the gods (see Fig. 8), and, as the Mother of the gods, she wore a turreted crown, such as no one can contemplate without being forcibly reminded of the tower of Babel. Now this tower-bearing Diana is by an ancient scholiast expressly identified with Semiramis.

Semiramis was famous for her orgies and appetites. It could be said She knew how to throw a party, which shows how far we have gone from God's standards.

Nimrod's names were different from one nation to another through the ages until this day. His reputation became his identity as the baby killer, and eater.

Alexander Hislop, Church of Scotland 1807-1865, The Two Babylons, writes,

As the Father of the gods, he (Nimrod) was, as we have seen, called Kronos; and every one knows that the classical story of Kronos was just this, that, 'he devoured his sons as soon as they were born.' Such is the analogy between type and antitype. This legend has a further and deeper meaning; but, as applied to Nimrod, or "The Horned One," it just refers to the fact, that, as the representative of Moloch or Baal, infants were the most acceptable offerings at his altar. We have ample and melancholy evidence on this subject from the records of antiquity. "The Phenicians," says Eusebius, "every year sacrificed their beloved and only-begotten children to Kronos or Saturn, and the Rhodians also often did the same." Diodorus Siculus states that the Carthaginians, on one occasion, when besieged by the Sicilians, and sore pressed, in order to rectify, as they supposed, their error in having somewhat departed from the ancient custom of Carthage, in this respect, hastily "chose out two hundred of the noblest of their children, and publicly sacrificed them" to this god. There is reason to believe that the same practice obtained in our own land in the times of the Druids. We know that they offered human sacrifices to their bloody gods.

These and many more forbidden behaviors are behind all the pagan religions. It seems clear their purpose is to separate the people from God.

It appears there must have been more than nine kings possessed by evil spirits. Who else would have known what would be forbidden by the real God and how to separate people from Him? What other kind of creature could keep contaminating one culture after another over thousands of years?

While such things are obvious, far less than eating children is considered evil by The King of the universe. Lack of knowledge or action may be enough to get left out when the Judgment comes.

The Son Of Man

Enoch describes one who can only be the central figure of all creation under the Most High God as The Son of Man. Enoch writes,

*And there I saw One who had a head of days,
And His head was white like wool, And with Him was another being whose countenance had the appearance of a man, And his face was full of graciousness, like one of the holy angels.*

Thank You for previewing this eBook

You can read the full version of this eBook in different formats:

- HTML (Free /Available to everyone)
- PDF / TXT (Available to V.I.P. members. Free Standard members can access up to 5 PDF/TXT eBooks per month each month)
- Epub & Mobipocket (Exclusive to V.I.P. members)

To download this full book, simply select the format you desire below

